Identification of Civil Servants in Sugar case

*84. SHRI ASHOK MITRA : Will the Minister of FOOD be pleased to state :

(a) whether the civil servants guilty of dereliction of duty, as alleged by him in the course of the discussions on sugar in the special session of Parliament last month, have been identified ;

(b) if so, the disciplinary measures, if any, proposed to be taken against them ; and

(c) whether the aforementioned civil servants have made any representations in this connection, and if so, the nature thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FOOD (SHRI KALP NATH RAI) : (a) to (c) Government has appointed an Inquiry Committee to enquire into the situation arising out of shortage in availability of sugar in the current season. This enquiry has been entrusted to Shri Gian Prakash, retired Comptroller and Auditor General of India. A copy of the Government order constituting the Inquiry Committee and its terms of reference are enclosed as statement. (See below). The Committee is expected to submit its report in a month's time.
